Hollywood's Award-Winners Storytime

This year's Storytime theme will celebrate the Caldecott medal, given annually since 1938 by the American Library Association to the illustrator of the best picture book published in the US for the previous year. It is named for Randolph Caldecott, a ground-breaking English illustrator of children's books in the 19th century. We will read at least one medal winner or honor book each week.

Storytime will take place every Tuesday at 10:30 am, outside and on Facebook Live. All ages welcome. Please bring a blanket or chairs to sit on; social distancing measures will be in place. **In case of bad weather, Storytime will be held on Wednesdays, or online only.

Adult Book Discussion

Tuesday, September 15, 6:00 pm

At the age of twenty-four, Winston Churchill was utterly convinced it was his destiny to become prime minister of England. He arrived in South Africa in 1899, valet and crates of vintage wine in tow, to cover the brutal colonial war the British were fighting with Boer rebels and jumpstart his political career. But just two weeks later, Churchill was taken prisoner. Remarkably, he pulled off a daring escape—traversing hundreds of miles of enemy territory, alone, with nothing but a crumpled wad of cash, four slabs of chocolate, and his wits to guide him.
